Dear Judge Rakoff,

I am writing to you regarding my criminal Case # 1:22-cr-00352-JSR. I am wishing to wave my rights to file any motions and proceed to a speedy trial. I understand the purpose of the motions and my lawyer has advised me as best as he can. I am disregarding his advice and would like to proceed with trial.

I would also like to request to appear via video conference in the meantime while I am still incarcerated in Puerto Rico waiting for extradition to New York. All of my co-defendants have been arraigned and I do not want any delays to proceed to trial. I hope this letter pleases the court and you consider my request.

Thank You
